

Tamaki City's Background

Located in Eastern Japan, Mie is an offbeat prefecture in Kansai area. Unlike crowded Kyoto and Osaka, its historical and sacred sites make Mie a prefecture of cultural and local values.

Tamaki is a small town situated in the center of Mie prefecture. Vigorous Tamaki welcomes you to come and try its signature Tamaki pork, enjoy its pristine and tranquil beauty of nature, try newly-harvested rice and view cherry blossom petals trailing your footprints in Tamaru Castle. Tamaki town is a perfect escape for your busy daily life. With family and friends, Tamaki nature will help you rediscover your inner self.

How to get to Tamaki Town?

Tamaki town

114-2 Tamaru, Tamaki-cho, Watarai-gun,
Mie Prefecture 519-0495
Tel: 0596-58-8200
Fax: 0596-58-4494

<https://kizuna.town.tamaki.mie.jp>

Tamaki Town

Tourism Assistance Guide

Tamaki-a town of deep-rooted history, pristine nature and culinary culture is waiting for you to discover!

Typical itinerary to experience different parts of Tamaki Town

F. Kami no Konchukan is known as the museum of paper handicrafts of insects. You can try to cut simple methods such as butterflies and dragonflies using colored paper by FREE!!

You can also try very delicious pears here!!!

J. A composite facility where you can find hot springs and outlet stores with a wide variety of fresh local vegetables and meat. You can enjoy locally raised pork barbecue.

9:30am ~ 8:00pm (not opened on Wednesday)

D. Ryohei Murayama Memorial Museum is known as the memorial hall that honors Ryohei Murayama, who was involved in the launch of the Asahi Shimbun, includes the Tamaki Town Local Museum and the Tamaki Town Library

H. In Kotaiji Temple You can enjoy the beautiful autumnal leaves in the fall, eat a vegetarian diet, and practice Zen meditation.

E. Ogozo shrine was founded in 804, It is one of 13 Uchimiya Setuesha companies in Tamaki Town. In the area that is the 4th place among the 16 companies in the inner shrine of Naiku, called "Ame no Miya". This shrine, dedicated to the Farming God, and is situated in a small forest in the middle of some rice fields.

One day course

